2018 Boundaries Workshop

Thursday, November 15, 2018

9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Trinity Lutheran Church
 1330 13th Street, Moline, IL 61265

This workshop is for pastors and deacons of both the Northern Illinois Synod and the Southeastern Iowa Synod with workshop presenter Arden Mahlberg, Ph.D. of The Integral Psychology Center, Madison, WI.

Registration of $50 per person includes lunch.

Pastors and deacons are recommended to receive boundaries training every 3-5 years.

Topics will include: For clergy to be boundaries educators and leaders helps the congregation not just be healthier; it helps it fulfill its role in the body of Christ; The psychology of boundary keeping – why we can't trust our own judgment; The role of following best practices in compensating for flaws in our moral judgment; When not to follow a best practice and why; The importance of mutual accountability among colleagues and within congregations; Anonymous, second and third hand complaints from different points of view, including power differences; Reframing complaints into requests; Identifying and working with conflicts of interest; Role & value integrity in social media.
